20 puan

Read the text and answer the questions. (Metni oku ve soruları cevapla.)

> Last year, our school started a project called "Classroom Without Walls". Once a month, students leave the school building and learn in different places. For example, the history class visited a museum, and the biology class studied plants in a national park. At first, some teachers were worried because it was difficult to organise the trips. However, the results have been amazing: students' grades have improved, and they say the lessons are more memorable. Next year, the school is planning to invite local experts, such as engineers and doctors, to give talks.

1. How often do the students learn outside the school building?

   _____

2. Where did the biology class study plants?

   _____

3. Why were some teachers worried at first?

20 puan

Read the model. Then write a short blog post (80–100 words) with advice for students before exams.
(Modeli oku. Sonra sınav öncesi öğrencilere tavsiyeler veren 80–100 kelimelik kısa bir blog yazısı yaz.)

Model: Healthy Holidays – Holidays are great, but we sometimes forget our health. First of all, you should go to bed at a regular time. Also, try to spend at least an hour outdoors every day. If you feel bored, call a friend instead of scrolling on your phone. Finally, don't forget to drink enough water. Small habits make a big difference!
