6	ENG.11.3.W3 Modele dayalı yazma	Örnek cevap: In my opinion, schools should start later in the morning. Firstly, teenagers need eight to ten hours of sleep, but most of us go to bed late. As a result, we are tired and distracted in the first lessons. Secondly, studies show that students who sleep more get better grades and feel less stressed. On the other hand, a later start means school finishes later, so students have less time for activities. However, I think a one-hour change would not cause serious problems. To sum up, starting school at nine o'clock would improve both our health and our learning. Puanlama: İçerik (8): açık görüş, en az iki gerekçe, bir karşı görüş.
